RICHMOND HILL BARN THEATRE - GENESEO, ILLINOIS

The Manningham home on Angel Street, in 19th century London is the scene of strange happenings. Gentle and lovely Mrs. Manningham is slowly losing her sanity, under the ministrations of her suavely sinister and handsome husband. An amiable and paternal inspector from Scotland Yard suspects Manningham may be a maniacal criminal wanted for a murder committed 15 years ago in this very house. Can the inspector aid Mrs. Manningham in explaining the secret of the dimming gaslight and determine the location of hidden jewels before it's too late?
