RICHMOND HILL BARN THEATRE - GENESEO, ILLINOIS

This comedy revolves around theater veterans, a green playwright, and new money on opening night of a brand new play. The setting - the actress's suite at Ritz-Carlton Hotel on Boston Common. Thrilled with what they KNOW will be a sensation on stage because it's fresh, brave, ahead of its time, the show appears to be a flop on opening night. Who's to blame? It's a love/hate relationship within the realm of the theater.
